HEAVY LOSSES

Sustained by the Russians

RUSSIA PATROLS THE RED SEA

Japs Would Like the Russians to Trot Out Their Baltic Fleet. Nearing the end at Port Arthur

THE STOLEN MAIL.

Aden, Arabia, July 18.—The British steamer Persia was forcibly detained an hour in the Red Sea by the Russian volunteer fleet steamer, Smolensk, which transferred to the Persia a portion of the Japanese mails seized on the North German Lloyd steamer Prinz Heinrich on July 15. The Smolensk confiscated two bags of the Prinz Heinrich's mails destined for Nagasaki.

THE BEAR DRIVEN BACK.

Tokio, July 18.—General Kuroki reports that two divisions of the Russian army made a desperate assault on Mao Lien pass at dawn July 17, but were repulsed. Casualties were not stated.

JAPS WANT RUSSIA TO TROT OUT HER FLEET.

New York, July 18.—A dispatch to the Times from its Tokio correspondent says that the leading Japanese journals declare that the advent of the Baltic fleet will be welcomed by the Japanese, as Port Arthur will certainly fall before its arrival and the fleet will therefore have no base except the ice-bound port of Vladivostok. These journals say, however, that it is difficult to see how the fleet can accomplish the voyage without French assistance.

IMPORTANT MAIL SEIZED.

Tokio, July 18.—The Japanese torpedo boat destroyer has captured a junk conveying mail from Port Arthur to Chefoo. Letters dealing with military and naval conditions at Port Arthur have been seized and much valuable information was contained in the letters. Those which did not deal with military topics have been forwarded to St. Petersburg.

PATROL RED SEA.

St. Petersburg, July 18.—General public satisfaction is manifested over the decision of the Admiralty to patrol the Red Sea for the purpose of intercepting contraband of war destined for Japan. As yet, however, the papers do not discuss the subject.

EXPECT PORT ARTHUR'S DOWNFALL.

Chefoo, July 19.—No news whatever has come from Port Arthur lately but the belief that the final assault will be this week is growing. Newspaper correspondents are arriving here from Japanese and Chinese ports and are ready to get over to Port Arthur immediately after its fall.

RUSSIANS LOSE HEAVILY.

St. Petersburg, July 18.—The head of the column advanced from Ik-havuan at eleven o'clock. A battalion of the second dislodged a Japanese outpost at the point of the bayonet at the crossing of the Lako and Sinkia road. The details of this engagement have not yet been verified, but it is general, considered according to telegraphic reports sent in by General Keller. Our losses have not yet been ascertained, but General Keller reports that they exceed one thousand. The gallant 24th regiment suffered most. General Keller especially mentions the activity, courage and coolness shown by its commanding officers. Colonel Koschitz was severely wounded in the leg but remained in the ranks until the end of the action.

Sugar Factory for Calgary

Calgary people are jubilant over the proposal to establish a sugar factory there. Regarding the enterprise the Herald says:

A project involving the erection of a beet sugar factory in the Calgary district and the location of from five to nine hundred families on the lands tributary to the C.P.R. irrigation system, has been submitted to the company. The proposition is backed by a syndicate of American capitalists with the money and practical experience in beet sugar manufacture to assure its serious consideration. An expenditure of $800,000 here in a factory will be the immediate fruits of the undertaking, to say nothing of the new settlers.

The representative of the syndicate, Senator Fustavus Theden, of Minneapolis, has been in this section several days. He left last night satisfied with his investigation. He was in conference during the time with J. S. Dennis, assistant to Vice President Whyte. Prior to visiting Calgary, Sen. Theden had been conducting negotiations with Mr. Whyte. He said to a Herald reporter last night that the company had practically endorsed the proposition and nothing remained to conclude the arrangement further than working out the lesser details.

Senator Theden is one of a syndicate which erected a 500-ton beet sugar factory at Minneapolis. The plant has been in successful operation for seven years. It is still controlled by this syndicate. In addition to being a heavy investor, he is a chemist and familiar with every detail of the cultivation of the plants, construction of factory and the location of families necessary to the regular production of the raw material. He was educated in these branches in Germany.

After making several excursions over much of the land to be brought under the irrigation canal and carefully examined many miles of the adjacent country, Senator Theden expressed the deliberate opinion that the soil of this part of Alberta is more conducive to the production of sugar beets than that of Minnesota, where experience has demonstrated its fertility.

"In fact I cannot accept the statement that this is an arid region," he explained in conclusion. "As far as I am able to judge, the climatic and soil conditions are nearly parallel with those in Minnesota, under which beets have thrived and the factory has become a profitable investment."

General

By a cloudburst, northeast of Man-Ed, the town of San Juan del Monte was destroyed and 200 lives were lost. The property damage is $2,000,000.

Another railway horror is recorded at Chicago. Eighteen persons were killed and sixty-eight injured in a collision on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois railway at Glenwood, Ill., twenty-three miles south of Chicago. The collision occurred between a picnic train from Chicago, which was returning from Moline, Ill., and a freight train into the rear end of which the excursion train dashed at high speed. The picnic train was going north and the freight train was on the south-bound track. A misplaced switch put the picnic train over on the south-bound track and before the engineer could apply the brakes it ran at forty miles an hour into the rear of the freight. The locomotive, the baggage car and the freight coach of the picnic train were demolished and all of the killed and injured were on the locomotive and in the two cars.

Under the head of foreign policy, the U. S. Democratic platform advocates the restoration of "friendly relations with all nations and entangling alliances with none." ("We ought," it proceeds, "to secure, as far as we can, by treaty or reciprocal legislation, amicable rather than rivalrous trade relations with the nations of the world, as well as broader and more profitable foreign and home markets for our agricultural, mining, manufacturing and forest productions." We ought, especially we Democrats, having the interest of the entire people in view, in contradistinction to the policy of the Republican party, which has made no sincere effort in that direction, to secure more friendly and mutually beneficial trade relations with the Dominion of Canada and with our children who, driven by taxation at home and lured by fertile lands and liberal trade laws there, are daily flocking to her fields.")

Alberta Light Horse

The Calgary Herald says:

Local militia circles are much interested in the report of the probable formation of the Alberta Light Horse. Major Walker is slated as colonel. There will be five squadrons, Calgary, Milled and Medicine Hat will be the contingents first formed.

The headquarters of the new organization will be Calgary, and the troops of 100 men each, will be distributed over different parts of the Territories. Colonel Evans is very enthusiastic over the move and is said to be supported by the Ottawa authorities.

From the border as far north as the Red Deer River is expected to be the territory covered by these squadrons. All annual training will be done at Calgary.

As soon as Ottawa gives official consent, the work of organization will be rushed.

EDMONTON

From the Farmer's Advocate:

Edmonton, the principle town of the Saskatchewan river, is located 200 miles north of Calgary, and is the northerly terminus of the railway system of the continent; however, before long it bids fair to become a railway center. It is the wholesale supply point for the Mackenzie river basin, a region of nearly 2,000 miles from north to south, and 800 from east to west. No other city in America is the undisputed trade centre of such a large territory, and no other growing town in the West has such a large area of unclaimed fertility tributary to it. It is the commercial, industrial, educational, judicial and official centre of Northern Alberta.

Edmonton has been a place of importance in the Northwest ever since the beginning of the last century, although at that time its boundaries included only the rival forts of the Hudson's Bay and Northwest companies.

Edmonton was the point at which trade left the navigation of the Saskatchewan, to be carried by pack forces across the mountains to the extremely northern bend of the Columbia. Small furred animals, beaver, mink, etc., were exceedingly plentiful, so it soon became a rich trading center and important strategic point.

In time, trade across the mountains was abandoned, and furs in the immediate vicinity became scarce, so by 1860, Edmonton was losing the name it had made; shortly after, however, early in the sixties, gold was discovered on the Saskatchewan, and, as a natural consequence, quite an influx of enterprising miners from across the mountains found their way into Edmonton. The transfer of the Northwest to Canada in 1870 added better protection to life and property.

During the seventies the first railway talk was heard. At that time it was expected the C. P. R. main line would pass through it, consequently building lots were booming, numbers being sold at fabulous prices. However, the boom burst, the C. P. R. deciding to build their line 200 miles south, by the Bow instead of the Saskatchewan river, which shut out all hopes of early development. In 1891, the C. & E. line was completed to the south bank of the river, opposite Edmonton. The town still labored under a great disadvantage, for its wide river and deep valley remained unspanned. However, after incorporation, unremitting exertions were put forth for a number of years to secure railway entrance. This effort was at last rewarded through government aid to the extent of $100,000, the town adding a fourth of that amount, so that in October, 1902, the first railway train entered Edmonton. Great progress has been made since and several railway plans are being formulated, which will greatly benefit Edmonton.

The beautiful climate and rich soil, combined with the many other advantages, such as wood, coal, good water, shelter, scenery, location—having the large fertile north and east country to draw from—has been the means of drawing greater numbers of immigrants than any other portion of the Territories.

Mixed farming is the farmer's forte in Northern Alberta. Dairying is giving universal satisfaction wherever undertaken by men with some experience, and these without experience will find it a profitable industry, provided they start on a small scale, over watching their business closely and being willing to learn.

Hog-raising is another profitable branch of mixed farming, and one that fits well with dairying. The B. C. markets form a splendid outlet for bacon, also hogs alive or dressed. Several large shipments of dressed hogs have been sent to Australia by way of Vancouver, so that the westerly portion of the district has some strong advantages. The market which the mines in the mountains give for all farm products, and also the proximity of the Pacific ports, which are open all the year, must be considered as an asset of the farmer who owns farm land within reasonable distance of the Rockies.

Since the incorporation of the town took place, seven miles of graded streets, ten miles of sidewalks, a first class fire protection service with modern appliances, are among some of the public improvements made. In 1902 the town decided to take over the electric light plant and install a waterworks and sewerage system. The electric light service is complete; the capacity is 450 h.p., capable of carrying five thousand lights. At present two thousand lights are carried. The water supply is inexhaustible, as it is taken from the river, which is chiefly glacier fed. As regards quality, it ranks high.

The telephone system connects with Calgary and intermediate points, also St. Albert, Morinville, (20 miles north) Riviere Qui Barre (20 miles north-west), and Fort Saskatchewan (18 miles down the river).

The educational system is high and the school buildings modern, handsome and commodious, being built of solid brick. The high school has four rooms, the public ten rooms, with an attendance of 500. The Roman Catholics have a separate school with an attendance of about 150.

The population is about six thousand. The building trade is exceedingly brisk, and quite a percentage of the buildings in the business portion, and some in the residential, are of brick. The scenery is very beautiful, having many trees, and the winding river about two hundred feet below the town, with Strathcona in the distance.

Among the public institutions are seven churches, three hospitals, three schools, Salvation army barracks, Agricultural Exhibition association, public reading room and a club. There are two daily papers, the Bulletin and the Journal; it also has a foundry, named the Edmonton Iron Works Co., where farmers and builders can get everything kept in establishments of that kind and also have their repairing done.

As a fur-buying center, Edmonton is one of the most important on the continent. The furs of the Mackenzie river system of waterways find their ultimate market through Edmonton, and, as a result, the great fur houses of the world have agencies there. This competition ensures the trader good value without delay or expense, and naturally having sold his fur well, he is inclined to buy his outfit for next year's trade in the same place, and he does; Edmonton receiving the benefit.

The Edmonton Exhibition Association has a first-class half-mile track and fenced show grounds, with cattle sheds, stables and agricultural hall, beautifully and conveniently situated.

Although not a ranching district, cattle raising for beef purposes is carried on quite extensively, blending nicely with mixed farming.

Why Correspondents are Held Back

William Kirtan, war correspondent for the Central News and London Graphic, a military critic of considerable note, arrived at Victoria last week by the Canadian Pacific Railway Co.'s steamship Empress of India. Asked as to the real reason for the refusal of the Japanese to allow any war correspondents to go to the front, Kirtan declared with great emphasis that the sole reason was the fact that a number of irresponsible and sensational American newspaper reporters, who knew nothing about war or the duties of a war correspondent, had been sent out by individual American newspapers, and that the Japanese included not only these persons in the ban of prohibition, but also, on their account, the trained and veteran British war correspondents. Kirtan maintains that is the one solitary reason why the Japanese did not permit correspondents to leave Tokyo, or on permitting a few to accompany the latter divisions, effectually muzzled them at the front so that all their efforts were absolutely abortive. He says further that until the American newspapers remove these men there will be no material change in the situation, so far as the correspondents are concerned. Kirtan says his statements are based

The Olds Burglary

Herald:

The looting of the Olds post office by robbers Saturday night has been reported to Colonel Sanders. The aid of the mounted police was requested in running down the crooks.

The safe was dynamited. The work was evidently that of professionals. A mysterious feature of the case is that no strangers have been seen coming in or going out of Olds.

The office is located in a separate building and the thieves worked with little danger of detection. Postmaster J. W. Silverthorn is in communication with the mounted police north and south. The authorities say it is just possible the robbers are working in the country adjacent to Olds in the disguise of common laborers.

Colonel Sanders has received reports of professional safe blowers being at work further east, but not on the north line.

Lively Doings

Regina Standard: A man of well known reputation in this city by reason of his notorious character, was arrested last night and after spending a few hours in the cooler, broke off the bars and escaped from the city lock-up.

It was this way: Archie McIntyre, who lives with his wife at the home of Philip Copey, in this city, got drunk. His wife had been engaged as a nurse by Mr. Reaver, chief of the Alexandra Hotel, and McIntyre was displeased with it. Last evening he got a little too much of fire water and went down to where his wife was employed, and proceeded to make things happen. About twelve o'clock last night he became so noisy that Mr. Reaver sent for the policeman. Mr. McIntyre, the new night constable, was soon on hand. He attempted to put the handcuffs on the drunken man, but that worthy grabbed them, and snapped them locked. He held on so tightly that the two men were unable to conquer him, and not being able to do anything alone they shouted until the attention of the N.W.M.P. night constable was attracted, and coming to the assistance of his fellows, they succeeded in getting their man behind the bars. He was put on bail No. 1, and was all right at 9 o'clock this morning when Mr. Sample told him. At seven this morning, when Inspector Harwood went on duty, he had tried the bars off the door and gotten away. The bars are set in about two inches, and have an iron brace supporting them on the inside. McIntyre took up a couple of slats which were on the floor to raise his bed, and with these it was an easy matter to pry off two bars. Accomplishing this he did not wait to get any more off, but crawled through about a foot of space. The police are now on the track and they expect to land him in a more secure place before long.

This man will be remembered as the man who dragged his wife by the hair for about half a block last fall, and who has been several times fined for drunkenness.

British Opinion of the German Treaty

The British foreign office announces that an agreement has been signed by Foreign Minister Lansdowne and the German ambassador providing for the settlement by arbitration of differences which may arise of a legal nature, or relating to the interpretation of existing treaties between Germany and Great Britain. The terms of the agreement are identical with those recently concluded with France, Italy and Spain.

The announcement of the treaty comes as a complete and not altogether pleasant surprise to the English press and public. It was against just such an agreement that the Spectator and other powerful organs urged the government prior to King Edward's visit to Emperor William, at Kiel. By the papers which echoed that warning the news of the signing of the arbitration treaty is swallowed either with palpable dislike or with unfeigned disappointment.

The only whole-souled appreciation comes, curiously enough, from opposition papers. The Daily News, the government's most bitter opponent, warmly congratulates King Edward upon his latest achievement. The Liberal Daily Chronicle, and the Morning Leader follow suit, while such a staunch mouth-piece of the government as the Daily Telegraph devotes half of its editorial on this subject to expression of the belief that the Anglo-German treaty cannot compare in importance with the convention concluded with France.

Similar criticism is hurled by the Standard, but the Morning Post frankly decries the government, characterizing Lord Lansdowne's latest diplomatic stroke as a "policy of unsettled concessions and of treacherous amiability."

The Daily Mail and other papers accentuate the fact that the agreement is very limited in scope, and deals with minor matters. The Daily Mail declares that "there unhappily is no indication whatever on the part of Germany of such an amicable disposition as that exhibited by France," and adds that only if the German naval programme was reduced could both governments be congratulated upon the latest arrangement.

An especial point is given to the editorial stress upon the priority of the Anglo-French agreement by the fact that at almost the moment when Lord Lansdowne and Count Wolff-Metternich were signing the document at the foreign office, M. Claiton, the French ambassador to Great Britain, was laying the last stone of the new pier at Folkestone. There the French ambassador made a speech, which is given in great publicity, and in which he declared he was cementing the good-fellowship and friendliness of the two nations created by the Anglo-French treaty. These expressions are used with such effect in the editorials of the government organs, in order to offset the fear, not expressed except by the Morning Post, that the French public may entertain in view of the present development, grave doubts of British sincerity in the recent Cambon-Lansdowne treaty.

The Daily Telegraph, undoubtedly voicing official opinion says: "Bismarck's principle of Toujours en vedette will still remain a necessary motto at Wilhelmstrasse, but it must remain the vital idea under all circumstances of our own admittance. But every person of common sense must rejoice in the elimination of petty friction from the diplomatic intercourse of Great Britain and any other great powers. We should desire above all things a similar arrangement without kindred, the United States, and there is nothing in the world to prevent an identical agreement with Russia."

In support of its criticism, the Morning Post says that those who welcomed the Anglo-French treaty as a master-stroke, laid stress on the fact that it left Germany isolated. "Now an agreement with Germany and the presence of a German squadron at Plymouth, are proofs that Germany is not isolated."

The Standard, while not taking the treaty as an outgrowth of King Edward's visit to Kiel, says it is an appropriate sequence to that meeting. The Times, somewhat strangely, makes no comment on the Anglo-German treaty.

OLDS ROBBERY

POST OFFICE BROKEN INTO

Burglars Blew up the Safe and Absconded With Cash and Registered Matter

Bulletin Special Dispatch.
Ottawa, July 18th.—Early Saturday morning the post office here was entered by burglars and the large safe drilled and blown open with dynamite. The force of the explosion tore the safe door completely off and blew the front out of the building. The police were quickly on the scene and the surrounding country was scoured. Several parties were apprehended but nothing found to connect them with the crime. The work was evidently done by experts. The robbers secured $118 cash, $50 postage stamps and a number of registered letters. A large quantity of registered mail, stamps and cash was overlooked. The burglars were evidently scared before the job was finished. Government detectives are now on the case.

INTERESTING ACTION

TAKEN BY FRANK M. GRAY

Against the Local Painters and Carpenters Unions. Application For Injunction

Short, Cross, Duggar and Ewing have been retained by Frank M. Gray, an effort to obtain an injunction restraining the members of Local Union 1016, Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers of America and Local Union No. 1325 of the Carpenters' International Union from inducing customers, or prospective customers, of Mr. Gray, the plaintiff, to refuse him employment or break contracts made with him; from inducing workmen to quit or threaten to quit employment on buildings whereon the plaintiff is employed; or in any other way interfering with the plaintiff carrying on his business in his own way or disposing of his capital and labor according to his will.

The action is taken against the unions represented by P. C. Kidston, W. A. Deyl, F. W. Trevett, A. J. Thompson and L. L. Duplessis, members of the executive committees of the two unions in question.

The application goes on to recite a number of special cases.

In May it is charged that intimidation and other unlawful means were used by the defendants to induce E. D. Grierson to break a contract for repapering, the plaintiff suffering one hundred dollars damages.

It is further claimed that unlawful means were used to induce V. Lepape to refuse to allow the plaintiff to execute a contract. Fifty dollars damages.

Compensation is claimed for the withdrawal of A. E. Driscoll's work, which is claimed, to intimidation.

M. Bruselle, a customer of the plaintiff, took his work elsewhere, it is claimed, through intimidation from the union. One hundred dollars damages.

It is further held that the gentlemen before mentioned, against whom the charge is preferred, had endeavored to keep people from dealing with the plaintiff by intimidation and other

SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION

The Sunday School convention of the Red Deer district was held in the Presbyterian church, Oids, on July 18th and 19th.

The afternoon session of the first day was short. After devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Lang, of Oids, the president's address was delivered. In this address Mr. McVicar, of Red Deer, briefly but clearly sketched the history of the organization. He stated that through the organization great good had been accomplished, but felt that greater work must still be done.

The evening session was largely attended. After devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Ross, the address of welcome was delivered by Rev. Lang, of Oids, in which he cordially welcomed the delegates to the convention into the town, into the church, and into their homes.

Rev. Mr. Huestis, of Edmonton, the president of the Alberta Provincial Association, presided over the session of the delegates from an honored and esteemed representative of the people of Oids.

After the singing of a hymn the convention listened to a stirring and most effective address by Rev. Huestis, of Bowden, on the topic "Discouragement." In the course of his address Mr. Huestis pointed out the necessity of discouragements in the training of a strong, heroic soldier, emphasizing the fact that discouragements should stimulate, rather than lessen, the enthusiasm of any and every Sabbath school worker. He exhorted all Sabbath school workers to never lose sight of the fact that they were the servants of the great I Am, and that the results of their labor must of necessity depend very largely upon the working of divine sovereignty. After the singing of another hymn the audience listened to two inspiring addresses on the subject of "Church Union." The speakers were Rev. Perry and Lang, both of Oids. The impression of these speakers seemed to be that the spirit of church union was not only in the air but walking up and down the earth; that the church is and always has been the greatest factor in Empire building; that if union meant strength the church of to-day, with the vastness of its home and foreign demands, could not afford to disagree with the concentration of her forces.

The principal feature of the Wednesday morning session was a paper prepared by Rev. Danforth of Red Deer, in his absence read by the president. The paper was interesting and inspiring and brought out many discussions. The afternoon session consisted of a lesson in pedagogy by Mr. Russell, of Oids. Mr. Russell not only proved himself an expert in teaching but also of valuable assistance to those who eagerly watched each step in his scientific treatment of the International Sabbath school lesson for July 18th. There was also a "round leaflet table" led by Rev. Huestis, of Edmonton.

The evening session which brought the convention to a close consisted of an address or rather the opening of a discussion by Rev. Ross on the subject "The Aims of the Sabbath School" and an address by Rev. Huestis on "The Study of the Bible."

The Presbyterian and Methodist churches of Oids took part in and rendered suitable volunteers at each of the evening services.

The convention on the whole was a grand success and the testimony of those who enjoyed it seemed to be unanimous in proclaiming that it was beyond expectations a spiritual uplift and an intellectual feast.

POLES MAY AID JAPS

Russia's Polish soldiers fighting in Manchuria are to be counselled to do their utmost to insure Japanese victory through surrender, disobedience and joining the Mikado's army, according to a decision reached at a secret meeting of Polish revolutionary leaders at Orewa. The meeting was attended by prominent Poles from Russia, Germany and Austria. It was resolved that practical assistance should be afforded the Japanese, who are doing Poland's work for the present. Such assistance, it is thought, will serve the cause better than rebellion. After an animated debate the following resolution was passed: "The right moment for revolution in Russian Poland has not yet arrived. We must meantime pray God to favour Japanese arms. Our drifted brothers must join their regiments, but do all in their power at the right moment to assist their commanding officers, desert the Russian flag, and after falling into the hands of the Japanese plead for a chance to fight in their ranks."

It was resolved to supply every Polish soldier with a secret pamphlet containing instructions from the Polish political leaders.

The necessary funds will be furnished from the Polish National Treasury at Rapperswil, Switzerland, which is said to command several million francs. The meeting also decided on stubborn resistance to Germany's anti-Polish policy. The Supreme Court of Germany recently ordered the seizure of all copies of the new history of the Polish nation since 1862.

The Way of the Sensationalist

The Winnipeg Free Press says: "The executive committee of the Baptist convention of Manitoba and the Northwest has instructed Messrs. Metcalfe & Sharp, barristers, to prosecute the Telegram in connection with charges made by that paper in its issue of July 11th against the character of the Rev. W. C. Vincent, pastor of the Logan street Baptist church. In the article in question Mr. Vincent was charged with maintaining improper relations with a lady member of his congregation. It was also stated that the pastor had been dismissed, being given a year's leave of absence."

"On the following day the paper published a statement signed by six leading members of the congregation denying positively the charge, and asserting that 'the connection of the two parties' names, other than as pastor and church member, is both slanderous and untruthful.' In this document it was stated that Mr. Vincent was in a serious state of mind and body consequent upon overwork, worry and nervous shock resulting from the tragic death of his son last year, and had been given a year's leave of absence by a unanimous vote of the church. It was also stated that Mr. Vincent was at present a resident of a St. Paul sanitarium. This statement by the congregation was approved by the executive board of the Baptist convention, which declared that 'Mr. Vincent retains in as high a degree as ever the confidence and esteem of the board.'"

"These declarations were published in the Telegram but the paper declined to withdraw its charges and in consequence an action for libel is now to be entered."

Ponoka Items

From the Herald:

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Royal hotel in Ponoka last Saturday by Rev. D. L. Hughes, who returned on that day from an extended trip in Southern Alberta. The contracting parties were Levi Davus and Miss Hettie Thomas. The groom is a well-known farmer, living in this neighborhood, while his newly made life companion hails directly from Wales. May their residence in Alberta be both long and prosperous.

A. G. Harrison, agent Dominion lands at Edmonton, was in Ponoka on official business yesterday. In the last few months the entries for homesteads in his district, which include the territory north of township 13, have averaged about 300 per month. When the distance to which the land is taken from the railway it will be seen that even in this, the quiet season of the year, northern Alberta is securing an important part of the immigration to the Northwest. The very large number of applications for patents received in Mr. Harrison's office makes him a very busy man, and speaks well of the number of settlers who are receiving title to their homesteads, which range in value from $1,000 to $3,000, and which they secured three years ago for the entrance fee of $10.

The new addition to the new Alberta hotel is being rapidly pushed along and will be completed in a few days. It is expected everything will be in readiness for the opening of the bar on the 23rd.

There were about twenty Ponokites joined the special excursion to Stratheona Tuesday. They report that the train was too heavy for the engine furnished and they were stalled both going and coming home.

The hay crop in this district promises to be the best in several years. During the past few weeks the grass has made a very rapid growth, and the dry weather will admit of the cutting of many of the low sloughs which have not been cut for the past two or three years.

Willow Grove is the very fitting name recently applied to a prosperous settlement north of Ponoka and east of the Brooks school district. The district referred to is composed of a thriving and thrifty class of settlers who are doing well in Alberta, and who are quite content with their lot here.

The Herald has leased the Fowler building on Donald avenue and are this week engaged in moving our plant into the same. As a consequence the paper may not be quite up to the standard for a couple of weeks. In our new and commodious quarters and with additional and efficient help, we will add several improvements to the paper and at the same time be in a better position for the satisfactory execution of job work.

J. P. Vincent has concluded to devote considerable time from now hence to his great Northwest Union railroad scheme. He will at once make a survey of his proposed right of way to Calgary and push the sale of his bonds.

Today and tomorrow are to be Indian days in Ponoka. Indian Agent Grant yesterday began paying the Indians treaty money at the agencies, and it is expected that as soon as they receive their money, they will come to spend it. As an inducement for them to come here the townspeople have donated them two large steers which will be killed and eaten while they are in camp here. There are some 700 Indians on the reserve and it is expected they will nearly all be in Ponoka by tomorrow. Tomorrow afternoon will take place a program of Indian races and sports.

The first Seventh Day Adventist camp meeting ever held in Alberta convened in Ponoka July 12. Friends have come in from Stratheona, Jowett, Brooks, Haynes and other places. The ministers from abroad are—Elder R. A. Underwood, of Williamsport, Pa., who is now President of the Northern Union Conference; Elder C. J. Kunkle, of Hinkley, Minn.; Elder A. C. Anderson, of College View, Nebraska, and Henry Block, of Leduc. The meetings are growing in interest and attendance. The tabernacle and several small tents are pitched opposite the school ground, while others have rooms near by. The coming of the Lord in this generation, with signs which show that event to be near and the preparation necessary to meet him in peace, have been the principal themes discussed. Last night Elder Underwood spoke on the question of the strife between capital and labor, and what the Bible has to say about it. Friday night the topic will be "The renewing of God's image." Regular services are held at 8 a.m. for prayer and praise and for preaching at 10.30 a.m., 2.30 and 8 p.m.; while instruction along the lines of temperance, Sabbath school work and other lines of Christian work are given. The meetings will continue and subjects of thrilling interest will be presented. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend all these meetings.

The Canadian Northwest
Homestead Regulations

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting 8 and 16, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age to the extent of one quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY.—Entry may be made per the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or, if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situated, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10.00 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, namely, one of the following upon cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years:

(1) At least six months' residence.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, reside upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of the Act are waived.

(3) If a settler has obtained a patent for his homestead, or a certificate for the issue of such patent, countersigned in the manner prescribed by this Act, and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon said land.

The term vicinity used above is meant to indicate the same township or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses 2, 3, or 4, must possess on or go to some of the following lands to be eligible to make a homestead entry:

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the local agent, sub-agent, or Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

Information.—Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office, in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office, in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing land to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

JAMES A. SMART.

Deputy Minister of the Interior.
 N.B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands to which the regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

—Calgary baseball team are talking of taking a trip to Brandon Fair to enter the big baseball tournament.

—The choir and Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school are picnicking this afternoon on Groat's flat.

—A break occurred last evening in the water pipe connections on Jasper Avenue West, opposite the Massey-Harris warehouse.

—A memorial service will be conducted by Jasper Lodge No. 6 Knights of Pythias, in Hourston's Hall Thursday evening, July 22nd, at eight o'clock.

—Professor Fletcher, government entomologist, and Mr. Willing, chief inspector of noxious weeds, will deliver lectures in Garrick Hall this evening.

—The Territorial Medical council is about to institute proceedings against a number of unregistered practitioners who are said to be practicing medicine in Alberta.

—Tenders are being called for the erection of a new city office building. Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the Town Engineer or H. A. Magdon, Architect.

—A complimentary banquet will be tendered Frank Oliver, M.P., in the Edmonton Thistle rink on Friday evening, August 19th. Prominent speakers from the east will be present.

—Rev. W. J. Clark of the First Presbyterian church, London, Ont., who is at present visiting his brother, Rev. J. A. Clark, Calgary, will occupy the pulpit of the Edmonton Presbyterian church next Sunday.

—J. P. Lenoir has recently taken a twenty-five mile trip through the Sturgeon district. In every part he found the crop outlook good, everything pointing to a record yield. Barley is especially good. Quite an acreage of flax has been sown this year.

—It seems that the recent rains have been confined practically to the immediate neighborhood of Edmonton and comparatively little rain fell out a few miles from the town. The bright, hot sunshine is bringing along the crops and the general outlook is most favorable.

—Regina Standard: Some time during last night an attempt was made to burglarize the residential portion of the Bank of Montreal. The would-be burglar made entrance to the kitchen door over the back yard, and burst the lock, but in doing so, aroused some of the inmates and made a hurried flight.

—Herald: A meeting of the license commissioners was held to have been held to-day for the purpose of making a transfer of the license of the Dominion hotel from the present holders to Norman D. Jackson, Mr. Jackson, however, received the transfer from Regina yesterday and a meeting of the commissioners is now unnecessary.

—The lacrosse and baseball teams had a good practice on the Hudson Bay grounds last night. There was a fairly large turnout of players and some good work was put in. The lacrosse match which was to have taken place with Saskatchewan at Saskatoon on Friday evening, will probably be postponed for a few days. Great interest is being taken in the next match as both teams are confident of winning out.

—Innislake Free Lance: Mr. J. W. Brooks, the leader of a party of Dunkards from North Dakota, is in town this week looking for a location for about a hundred homesteads. Mr. Brooks has investigated the claims of several towns along the line and is now thoroughly going over the Innislake district. The delegates were taken out on Wednesday to see the land and crops west of the town. Mr. Brooks says he and his delegation will locate the colony this trip.

—Instead of the regular Epworth League meeting last night, the young people of the Edmonton Methodist church held a social evening in the park on the exhibition grounds. Upwards of one hundred were present and a most enjoyable time was spent. Football, baseball, foot races and other games were indulged in. Fruit and other refreshments were served on the grand stand and a short program brought a very pleasant evening to a close.

—It is a singular coincidence that June 1st, the date when the first daily transcontinental service on the C.P.R. was inaugurated, was the anniversary of the departure in 1886 of the first through train of the company that ever crossed the continent. It was on that memorable day that the town of Vancouver was wiped out of existence by an awful conflagration that left only four houses standing, and in which fifty lives were lost.

—Leduc Record: The south bound passenger train to Calgary met with an accident yesterday morning about two miles north of Millet through one of the axles of the tender breaking. Fortunately, no one was hurt, and only the tender was derailed. About two hundred of the cars were torn up and broken and some of the rails bent but otherwise nothing was injured. The conductor brought word to Leduc and engine No. 24 ran down and brought back the passenger coaches. About thirty out of the eighty passengers had dinner in Leduc; others walked the two miles to Millet, and awaited the arrival of the train, which left for the south again at 14.15.

—Innislake Free Lance: Word was received from Golden, B.C., on Monday that Sandy Fraser, one of the best known old-timers here, had been drowned in the Columbia river. Mr. Fraser resided in the Little Red Deer district for several years, having located there in 1882, and was well and favorably known by all old-timers. He had been in the Northwest for about 22 years, 12 of which were spent in the Northwest, after which he removed to British Columbia. A couple of months ago he spent a few weeks here visiting old friends, who little thought they were seeing him for the last time. No particulars of the sad event have been received.
